The Constitution has been tested a fundamental law is tested, and it has proved ln its beautiful simplicity strong enough fo the salvation of the nation. So says one of the chlef organs of the party in power.

We don't think any such credit due the Constitution. Neither Its grants of power nor its positive prohibitions have been reparded.

A President is elected, after the old fashion in form, and so are Congressmen. But here in Kentucky the military settle who shall not run for office, and who shall not vote. Whatever merit there is in this does not certainly clong to the Constitution.

What the Constitution forbids is done daily to save the nation. Certainly the merit of the acta do not belong to the Constitution. The doctrine is, that the military may be used at discretion to do whatever the commander msy deem necessary. FROM PANAMA.

A New Theory of General Sickles' Mis sion to Central America-Proposal to Purchase Lands on Which to Colonize Freed Negroes.

[From the Panama Chronicle, Feb. 16,7 [From the Panama Chronicie, Feb. 15.]
Our native friends are so greatly exercised in their conjectures relative to the mission of General Sickles to this Government, that we are luduced to refer to it sgale without having any positive data on the subject. It is said that the general's object is to procure from the Columbian Government a concession of lands, on which the United States Government will form a settlement of thirty thousand of tha negroes emancipated by the great secession war xtend a protecting hand to them in any hour of extremity. With such landsbia motives we annot but applaud the object of the United States Government.

Shook, who soon mounted fifteen of the State advised Colonel Glenn to place a guard after rebel Captain might be induced to pay a visit to his parents, as he was so near to town, and was known to be quite daring.

The father of Olile Steele writes to the Henderson News:

On Friday night last a rquad of negro troops, under command of one Captain Partridge, setting under criters of Liautenant Colonel Glene, disturbed my family by throughing at my door at twaive o'clock, and, with loud imprecations and curses, demanding an entrance. In reply, I told them that my wife was quite sick, and under medical treatment. To this Captain P made no response, but made an attempt to force the door, which I readily opened, when in rashed ten negro soldiers, with bristling muskets and fixed bayonets. A portion of them, under orders, setzed upon the bed, wherefrom my wife had just bastily arisen in her night gear, and quickly ripped open the lick, spreading and emotring the contents on the floor. Next they visited another chamber, where my young daughters were sleeping, and served On Friday night last a squad of negro tro same way. Nearly every moveable article about the house was displaced and thrown pell-nucli into promiscuous heaps, and many things were crushed houseth the tread of the burly negro troops. Every book I had was thrown upon the item, and many of the leaves were damaged. They, also, opened all the drawers in one of the bureaus, and rifled them of many of the contents. Among the rest was a small bug of old silver (25 oz), all of my wife's jewelry; an ivory-handled kelfe and fork, cer. One of the blocks, in the presence of his officer, seized upon my wife's gold waich, but she succeed in wrenching it out of his grasp. They also appropriated two small wallets belonging to my little children, and which contained a small abount of currency. One of the soldiers "pressed" a silver lever watch off the mantlepiece, but when charged by me he had the bardhood to deny the fact. Captain Perirdge then administered an oath to him, and then asked him if he took it; he swere he had no!! The Captain then pronounced him innocent, and deciared he would rather believe the negro than me. Capt. P. also ordered ma to deliver up some watches I had in my pocket, belonging to my customers, as I am a watchmaker, threatening to use physical force if I resisted. I gave him three—rataining one. He nition, two bridies, a halter and aurchagle. Before they left my premises, these acidiers broke open my henhouse and robbed me of sixteen chickens.

The next day Col. Glenn returned me only about two-thirds of the stolen property, stating to me, for my consolution, that, "no doubt the residue would turn up shortly."

The above statement is correct, and can be fully proven by disinterested testimony.

by passengers who arrived on steamers from o'clock, a party of thirty-four guerrillas, under command of one Francis Mathe rebel army, made their appearance near Brandenburg, Ky., and, forming themselves in line of battle, advanced upon the town. Capt. Balley, of the Twenty-seventh Kentucky, who had nader his command some forty-two men, nt once went out to meet the advancing enermy, who, it is said, bore the black flag, and just on the edge of the town a fight ensued, which lasted aoma two hours. The guerrillas, seeing that our forces were determined, and fearing that they might be captured, took to their beels and scattered in all directions. The guerrillas who were so handsomely repulsed only casualties our informants heard of were ceased as the Morning Star came up, and we were nnable to learn any further particulars.

IMPORTANT FROM MATAMORAS.

Closing of the American Consulate.

[From the New Orleans Delta, Feb. 96.1

By a late arrival from Matamoras we lear

By a late strival from Matamoras we learn some of the particulars that led to the closing of the United States consulate at that viace:

There was the accredited commercial agent of the United States resident in Matamoras. Had obtained his exequator from Justez, and his official position has been recognized by the Imperial Government as having been existentially been mew regime. But it appears that on the latter of December last our Government sent out.

Mr. Etchinson as Consul. Mr. Pierce endeavored to assist the new Genul in procuring the necessary efficial recognition to enable him to perform the duties of his office. Application was made to Gen. Mejis for permission to set by Mr. Etchinson and from Mexico. Mejis promptly gratted the request, but the Prefect, who reports directly to the Secretary of State, refused. This functionary informed the Consultation was made to describe the secretary of State, refused. This functionary informed the Consultation of the second of the case, and received in reply an order to direct that the united States Consult on the Matamoram. will form a settlement of thirty thousand of the negroes emancipated by the great secession war.

It is stated that one million of dollars will be given for this privilege, and it is feared that the settlement of thirty thousand emancipated slaves will lead to a repetition of Tean history. Wa would first state that the american flevernment will never pay one million of ollers for this privilege, and in the second place our native friends do not unnegated the character of the Americans, and is not enclared the recognition to enable the american should exist between them as semigrants and the united States novernment. The object of the Americans, as discosed in several of resident Lincoln's specures and dispatches, is to remove these poor people from a country which has been thrown into a state bordering on destruction through their presence there in the condition of slaves. To have these people as freed men in the southern State, after the war may have been concluded, would be a constant cause of irritation to the former masters, inducing alsanction in the former masters, where the laws of the country will guarantee them un one of the neighboring and friendly States, where the laws of the country will guarantee them safety, sand where it will he easy for the United States Government to addression than could have been expected under the circumstances, no shoned sending onicial notice to close up until after sucset, when he knew that he would be taken down, of course. In the evening, however, the order came, news of which spread rapidly throughout the town, and caused Mr. Pierca's nouse to be braiced by a crowd of anxious citians of the United States, who still reason the him sa possessed of some power and inflance. The papers and records of the office were packed up and removed to Mr. Pierce's house, and the critical left closed. Mr. Pierce left Matamoras ou the 16th, with the intention of returning soon.

For some time previous to leaving Mexico, Mr. Pierce had been engaged in official correspondence with General Mejis on the subject of delivering no alleged ingilives to the rebei authorities at irrownsville. In reoly to protests against this practice, tha General answered that he only ordered the return of those guilly of some crime of megalinde, and that this way form and a proceeding the strength of t those guilty of some crime of megaltude, and that this was done under an extradition treaty While, however, this was the avowed theory the practice went far beyond and included the delivery up of anybody wanted by the rebels. There is, of course, no difficulty in trumping Thera is, of conree, no difficulty in trumping up a charge to prefer against any one; and, as there is no trial or examination, except to take the fugive before the chief alcaide and make a formal demand and identify the person, it opens the door to the rebels to drag from the friendly and pentral shores of Mexico any one who may be thought to be heatile to the Confederate canes, or who may be neefal as a conscript. It was officially given out, however, that fugitive slaves were not surrezdered.

ever, that fuglilve slaves were not surrendered.

There is unquestionably an attempt on the part of the Brownsvilla rebela and their sympatilizars in Matamoras to compiletate tha relations existing between the United States and Mexico, and, if possible, provoke bostilities. By this means they hope to call in the aid of France, and thus bring the weight of that power to bear on the robel side in the great contest that has been waged for four years, and with results as onexpected and disheartening to the rabels. The refusal of our Government to recognize Maximilian is artifully used by public enemies in this country to serve their ends, and stir up a feeling of resentment against this country in Mexico. This appears to be the cause of all the difficulty.

BOILER Explosion.-On last Thursday bout 123 o'clock, the boller of a saw-mill, on Hor. Arch. Dixon's farm, 2' miles above Henderson, exploded with terrific force, tearing the building to pieces, killing two, and wounding three more persons. The catastrophe is said to have been occasioned by the want of anfilelent water in the boiler, as the machinery was all new, and of course had been duly tested.

A Mr. Dorset was instantly killed, the top of his skull being blown away. A little negro boy, belonging to Mr. Dixon, was so severely brjured that he has since died. Mr. Jeseph Dixon was thrown with violence some twentyfive yards, and his face badly scalded. Robt. Aives was scalded badly from his bips down, and was struck with a piece of iron on the neck. He will recover from his bouries.

REBELS AT FHILADELPHIA, -O2 the 21 instant, about 8 c'clock, a gang of guerrillas numbering about fitty, under command of Captain Mastin, made a rald on the little town of Philadelphia, six miles below Loudon and severty-eight from Chattanocga. They burned the depot, nothing being lett of it but the chimneys, and took all the horses they could find in the surrounding country. They wera very violent in their actions, pointing pistols at the besds of several ladles, and threatening to shoot them, unless they gave np what money they might have. We have not heard of any one belrg killed.

WHEELER IN EAST TENNESSEE -It was reported and believed in Charleston, Alabama that Wheeler, with a large force of cavalry was enterlog East Tennessee. Charleston is about forty miles from Chattanoogs, on the Knoxville railroad. It was reported that his advance, of two hundred men, had crossed the Hlwasses river, abova that place, in cances, rlon, who styles himself as a Major in awimming their horses. Several well known parties, former residents of that section, belonging to the command of Wheeler, are known to be in that neighborhood, and efforts have been made to capture them.

LOUISVILLE THEATER. - Benefit of Miss Le Hudsen to-night. Don't forget it.

[For the Louisville Democrat.] Mesers. Editors: We stated in reply to Mr. McGill's first communication that we had no disposition to euter into a newspaper contro versy with him, nor do we intend to. We would state. however, concerning his second publication, that his statements therein are publication, that his statements therein one true, as can he readily seen by any one who wishes to take the trouble to examine the papers in the Chancery suit referred to. It may be remarked, also, that Mr. McGill keeps silent on the subject of the proceedings before the United States Circuit Court. Mr. McGill can make himself notorions, if he hadden to he forther publication. We are done McGill can make himself notorions, if he chooses, hy further publication. We are done with him on that score, yet are prepared and ready to defend onracives in any judicial proceeding he may wish to institute GERMAN & BEO.

[For the Lonisville D:mocrat,]

Messrs. Editors: I would not trouble you and the public further, but for the missepresentations made by German & Bro. In their card in the city papers, on the morning of the 8th inst. In that card the Messrs, G. & Bro. make use of this language: That we have not been actieg unlawfully in lithographing or selling the labels, has heer decided by the Chancellor of the Louisville Chancery Court, in a suit in said court, which Mr. McGili brought against us to erjoin uz; but, on hearing the case, the Charcellor re freed to grant the injunction, and dismissed McGili's petition, with costs.

It is a rula of evidence in the courts, I be lieve, that when a witness knowingly speak falsely as to a material fact, he is not to be believed at all. Now, the above statement of German & Bro. is utterly false, for the reason that it is intended to convey the idea that my application to the Chaucellor for an injunction was refused, whereas it was granted, but we not perpetuated. They also wish to convey the Idea that the case was heard upon its merits by a preliminary motion in the case, the Judge Court had no inrisdiction in the matter, and made this order: "The case is dismissed f. want of inriadiction." Does th's lack like the idea conveyed in the following words: "That we have not been acting nelawfully in lithegraphing or selling the labels, has been de clded by the Chaucellor of the Louisville Chan cery Conr'." The other statements of this card are shout upon a par with this. It requires the face of men who have dealt with the property of others as German & B.o. have with mine to directs appointed by the Jefferson County enter the public prints with a card as full of nntruth as theirs.

S. B. McGill iFor the Louisville Democrat,] Public Meeting in Hardin County At a call meeting at D. B. SENATE.

Trumball, from the committee on the Judiciary, made a report on the credenilals of Mr. Snow, censior electrom Arkansas. The committee say that is 1851 the constituted arthorities of the State of Arkansas, so far as they cruid succeed, took the State beyond the authority of the United States, and that in pursuance of law of congress the President by preclamation declared that the insbitant's of that State to be included in the insurrection. Therefore the committee recommend that the question of samesion be postponed till next session and until Congress shall take action in report to a lating State government of Arkansas. The report was adopted.

RIVER MATTERS.

The River at this point came to a stand-bout donk last evening having, during Wednes-lay night and yesterlay, risen about ten inches the water has now reached about the same stage attained in the spring of 1962, which is nearly equal to the freshet of 1853. It lacks some 9 feet yet of reaching the great flood of 1947. The weather for the past few days will have the effect to event the river recoding very fact and we look for material change for some days to come. On the ttoms below the city, as well as along the lower order of the river, the farm lands are overflowed, at hendreds of families have been driven from their homes by the sucroachments of the water rty be sustained by the farmers as well as the in bitants of the towns along the river. When the water recedes the deposits ieft by it will no doubt use a oreat deal of sickness. People should be epared, as far as possible, to theroughly cleaned eir premises as soon as the water leaves them, d should not again move into their houses until he walls become perfectly dry. The weather yeserday was exceedingly disagreeable a rain falling uring the fore part of the day, but in the afteron it turned colder, and we were visited with 3 i_ht show storm. -At Pittsburg, at noon yesterday, the river was wly awelling, with 11 feet water in the chanel, by the pier mark.

-Our noon dispatches from Cincinnati, state a: the river was falling, having recoded 1 foot 5 ches during the previous 24 hours. The weather vas warm with continued showers of rain.

-The Cumberland river, according to our latest vices, is still swelling. The water has already rtended some distance up Broad street, Nashville, fronting on the leves there. At Clarksville the water is within two feet of the great rise of 1847, and there is no dry land between that point and mithland. The river is full of floating houses, barns, cribs, pens, fences and trees, and propelling
